

Greetings for the New Year!

The Forum extends its best wishes for 2008. As we look forward to an exciting year of member-driven initiatives serving the education abroad field, we would like to thank all Forum members for their participation and support over the past year. The success of the Forum is a direct result of the commitment of its members to providing meaningful and effective education abroad programming for U.S. undergraduate students. Thank you to the many people who have contributed over the past year.

Wollitzer Award Nominations

Please consider nominating a worthy colleague for this year's Peter A. Wollitzer Advocacy Award. The deadline for applications is January 15, 2008. Full information and guidelines may be found at <http://www.forumea.org/wollitzeraward.htm>

Forum Pathways

The Forum Data Committee has revised the Pathways to the Profession survey, which examines the professional development of the field of education abroad by gathering data about salaries, workload and other job-related topics. An invitation to participate will be sent via e-mail to all Forum members within the next week.

Code of Ethics

The Ethics Working Group was hard at work over the holiday break to finalize the draft of the Forum's Code of Ethics. On January 15 the draft will be made available only to Forum members on the Forum website for comment and suggestions.

Boston Conference Update

Mark your calendar: the Early Bird registration rate ends February 1!

Conference Travel Grants: The Forum is pleased to announce the availability of a limited number of travel grants. The grants are intended to defray costs of participating in the annual Forum conference for education abroad professionals who would be unable to attend the conference without financial assistance. Grant awards range from $200 - $500. Selection will be based on need and demonstrated benefit of attending the conference. Application available at <http://www.forumea.org/TravelGrantApplication.htm>

Limited exhibitor and sponsor opportunities are still available! Contact Gwen Moore at mooreg@dickinson.edu or 717-245-1031.
