

Conference Participants to Receive Key Resources

Participants at the Portland conference will receive a record number of key resources that will be hot off the press:

- Education Abroad Glossary
- Standards of Good Practice for Short-Term Education Abroad Programs
- Pathways to the Profession Survey Report and Results
- State of the Field Survey 2008 Results
- Frontiers: The Interdisciplinary Journal of Study Abroad, Volume XVII

Forum members not present at the conference will receive their copies by mail.

Hotel Rooms Filling Fast!

Rooms at the Portland Hilton and Executive Towers are filling fast! Book now to reserve a room at the conference discounted rate of $139 per night for a standard room or $159 per night for an Executive Tower room. Reserve directly online or call: 503-226-1611. The Portland Hilton and Executive Towers is located in the heart of downtown Portland, and only one block away from the MAX Light Rail system, which provides convenient access to and from the Portland International Airport.

WELCOME!

Welcome to these new Forum institutional members:

American University of Bulgaria

Educators Abroad, Ltd

Occidental College

Princeton University

Universita Cattolica del Sacro Cuore (Milan)

University of Mississippi

Western Oregon State University

Environmental and Social Responsibility Standards Drafted

The sustainability working group of the Standards Committee has drafted standards for developing and managing environmentally and socially responsible education abroad programs. These are now being reviewed by the Standards Committee and will be posted in the near future on the web site for member comment, after which there will be a public comment period.

If you'd like to share this issue with your colleagues, a PDF is available at our online Archives. The Forum News is free to the public—sign up at www.forumea.org