Award for Excellence in Research Deadline July 15

The deadline for receiving nominations for the Forum's new Award for Excellence in Research is July 15, 2010. The Award for Excellence in Research recognizes significant research studies that benefit the field. The Forum will award this honor to exceptional candidates nominated by Forum institutional members in order to highlight excellent research that furthers our understanding of education abroad. In addition to honoring researchers, the award contributes to the improvement of education abroad by disseminating research that can serve as critical resources for the field, and encouraging rigorous inquiry into important education abroad topics. For full information and nomination forms, please see <http://www.forumea.org/ForumEAaward-excellenceresearch2010.htm>

Call for Proposals, 2011 Conference: "Making the Connection: Praxis and Theory in Education Abroad"

The deadline for submitting session and workshop proposals for the Forum's Seventh Annual Conference is July 15, 2010. The Conference will be held at the Park Plaza Hotel in Boston, MA from April 6-8, 2011. The conference theme, "Making the Connection: Praxis and Theory in Education Abroad," focuses on the link between education abroad practices and the theories on which they are based. The Forum's work as the Standards Development Organization for education abroad sits at the intersection of praxis and theory. The Standards provide a roadmap for the development of best practices that both flow from and inform the theory "behind" education abroad programs. The conference will critically examine how and why we design, develop and manage education abroad programs, and how education abroad praxis and theory must respond to the evolving needs of societies, institutions, faculty, and students. Sound education abroad programming requires a theoretical framework informed by practice, and practices that are informed by theory. Understanding the vital connection between praxis and theory is essential for the future of education abroad.

Call for Proposals, Standards of Good Practice Institute: "Ethics and Integrity in Education Abroad"

The deadline for submitting session and workshop proposals for the Forum's Standards of Good Practice Institute is July 31, 2010. The Institute, "Ethics and Integrity in Education Abroad," will be held on Wednesday, April 6, 2011 in conjunction with the Forum Annual Conference in Boston, MA.

This Standards Institute is dedicated to identifying and understanding education abroad ethical issues, and assisting participants to improve their institutional and organizational strategies for ethical operations within education abroad. Plenary and concurrent sessions, through a wide variety of practical, hands-on activities, will involve participants in analyzing everyday ethical dilemmas in areas such as student advising, marketing, relationships between institutions and program providers, and reciprocity with international partners. Institute participants will receive the debut copy of the 2nd edition of the Code of Ethics for Education Abroad.

A full description of the Institute theme, the call for Institute proposals, and proposal forms are available at: <http://www.forumea.org/Institute11.htm>

A second Standards Institute on the topic of Health, Safety and Security is being planned for June, 2011. Details will be announced soon.
