Train to Be a Peer Reviewer

Openings are available in this fall's Peer Reviewer Training Workshop, following the CIEE conference in Toronto. The workshop will take place on Saturday, November 17, at The Royal Fairmount Hotel from 2-6 pm. Full information and FAQ at:

Do You READ?

The Forum website is an excellent resource for education abroad research. The Research on Education Abroad Database \(READ\), created by the Data Committee, is an online database containing information about education abroad research projects. Like all Forum efforts, READ relies on input from members. Researchers, authors, and Forum members can contribute information about current and completed research projects using READ's online form. The more the database grows, the more useful it will be to the field!
